

2021 Distinguished Scientific Achievement
Nomination Form

Due Date: October 4, 2021

The Distinguished Scientific Achievement Award is a prestigious award honoring a scientist who has made a major contribution to liver disease research in basic science or in its application towards the prevention, treatment or cure of liver disease.

Nominee Name: _____

Organization/Institution of Nominee: _____

Mailing Address and Contact Information for Nominee

Street: _____

Street 2: _____

City: _____

State: _____

Zip: _____

Telephone: _____ Email Address: _____

This nomination is being submitted by (name): _____

Organization/Institution of Individual Submitting this Nomination: _____

Mailing Address and Contact Information for the Individual Submitting this Nomination

Street: _____

Street 2: _____

City: _____

State: _____

Zip: _____

Daytime Telephone: _____ Email Address: _____

Attachments Required:

1. Letter of recommendation - Attach a detailed letter of no more than two pages, on why you think this person should receive the Distinguished Scientific Achievement Award.
2. Nominee's full Curriculum Vitae

Previous recipients of this award can be found at the webpage be below: <http://www.liverfoundation.org/medical-professionals/alf-research-awards-program>

To submit a nomination, fill out this form and send it along with required documents via email to Megan Glynn at MGlynn@liverfoundation.org

For further information, contact Megan Glynn at 646-737-9402 or via email: MGlynn@liverfoundation.org

Incomplete nominations and late nominations will not be accepted.